

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MONTANA
HELENA DIVISION

DENNIS FRIEDT,

Plaintiff,

vs.

INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE,

Defendant.

Cause No. CV 21-60-H-SEH

ORDER

On August 3, 2021, Plaintiff Friedt filed a complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 alleging the Internal Revenue Service violated his civil rights.¹ On September 7, 2021, the Court found the pleading failed to state a claim for relief² and ordered Friedt to respond on or before September 30, 2021.

Friedt did not respond as ordered. Instead, he filed a Motion for Hearing that did not comply with L.R. 7.1 and that failed to plead facts or law stating a plausible claim for relief.⁴

ORDERED:

1. Friedt's complaint is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE, without leave to amend, for failure to state a claim on which relief may be granted.

2. Friedt's motion for hearing⁵ is DENIED AS MOOT.

DATED this 25th day of October, 2021.
